

Please do not weaken the NJ Do Not Call legislation; it has been a blessing to not be interrupted during the few hours we have together as a family. In fact, you should consider adopting it as federal law.

Jule Raichle